The DCA includes field samplings of water level, salinity, vegetation, surface elevation change, and soils.

Data Collection Area (DCA)

Because the work has not yet been approved by the U.S. Geological Survey (USGS), it does not represent any official USGS finding or policy.